SECTIONS OF ORDINANCE No. 61

RELATING TO LIQUOR LICENSES FOR THE COUNTY OF SONOMA

SECTIONS OF ORDINANCE No. 61

RELATING TO LIQUOR LICENSES FOR THE COUNTY OF SONOMA

Sec. 5. No person, corporation, firm or association engaged in the business of selling, offering for sale or giving away distilled, fermented, vinous, or other spirituous liquors or wines in said County of Sonoma, and outside of the incorporated limits of any incorporated city or town thereof, shall keep such place of business open, nor conduct, operate or carry on said business, nor sell, offer for sale or give away any of said distilled, fermented, malt, vinous, or other spirituous liquors or wines between the hours of 12 o'clock p. m. and five o'clock a. m. of the following day.

Sec. 6. Any five citizens of the County of Sonoma may file with the Board of Supervisors a complaint in writing (which complaint must be signed by each of said complainants, and must be duly verified by the oath of three of said complainants), that any person, corporation or association is keeping a noisy, boisterous, disorderly or disreputable house, or is conducting said place of business in violation of law, or any of the ordinances of this county. Said complaint shall set forth the facts upon which the charge is based, and upon such complaint being filed, the Board of Supervisors shall at once fix a day for the hearing of the same and shall cause notice in writing to be served upon the party thus complained against; said notice shall notify the said party of the time and place of the hearing of said complaint; and any such person, corporation or association so complained against who fails to appear at the hearing of said matter shall have his license revoked. But if the party complained against appears before the Board of Supervisors at the time set for the hearing of said matter, the Board must proceed to investigate the charges set forth in said complaint, and if upon such investigation it is found that the party complained of has been guilty of keeping a noisy, boisterous, disorderly, or disreputable house, or is conducting said house in violation of law, or any of the ordinances of this county, the said Board of Supervisors shall immediately revoke the licenses issued to the party thus found guilty and by order declare the same to be forfeited. And shall notify the tax collector of such revocation and forfeiture, and the party thus found guilty or who has failed to appear before the Board of Supervisors at the time of the hearing of the charges against him, shall be barred for the period of one year from the date of said order from obtaining a license for carrying on the same or a like business in said county.

Sec. 7. Any person, corporation, firm or association desiring a license to engage in the business of selling, offering for sale or giving away distilled, fermented, malt, vinous or other spirituous liquors or wines in any portion of this county lying without the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town of this county shall first present to and file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors a written application for such license, whereupon the Board, after due consideration of the same, may grant or reject said application. And be it further provided that if said application be granted, it shall be upon the express condition that said applicant will keep a lawful, quiet, orderly and reputable house and place of business. And that said place of business shall not be conducted in violation of law or any of the ordinances of this county.

For such license sixteen and fifty one-hundredth dollars ($16 50-100) per quarter shall be paid to the tax collector by the person, corporation, association or party obtaining the same. No license, however, shall be required by physicians, surgeons or chemists for the sale of distilled, fermented, malt, vinous or other spirituous liquors or wines used in the preparation of medicines, or sold by said physician, surgeon or chemist to be used in the due course of the science of medicine, or by manufacturers or producers of such distilled, fermented, malt, vinous or other spirituous liquors or wines, for the sale of their own manufacture or production, in quantities of not less than one gallon.

All licenses required by this section shall commence on the first day of January, April, July or October, and no license shall be issued for a shorter time than three months, nor for a longer period than one year; provided, that when any person, corporation or association holding a license under this section, is compelled (by circumstances over which he, or it, has no control), to remove his or its business from one house, building or place, to another house, building or place, no new license for the unexpired portion of the term for which his or its license was required under this section shall be required, provided, that such removal shall not be of a greater distance than one mile from place so removed from. Provided, further, that when any person, corporation or association having a fixed place of business and holds a license for the transaction of the same, shall dispose of such business before such license shall have expired, and the party succeeding to said business desires to continue the same, the holder of such unexpired license may present the same to the tax collector who shall write across its face with red ink the word "Transferred," and also the name of the person, corporation or association to whom said business has been transferred and the date of the said transfer, and shall sign the same, and such license when so endorsed shall be a valid license (for the remainder of the term for which said license was issued), for the party to whom the same has been transferred.

In no other case shall licenses issued under this ordinance be transferable; provided, further, that all licenses issued under this section may be revoked at any time by the Board of Supervisors when, in their judgment, good and sufficient cause exists therefor.

Sec. 8. On the first Monday in each month the tax collector shall make and return to the Board of Supervisors a full and complete report of all persons, firms, corporations or associations holding liquor licenses under this ordinance, and when the same was granted, and when the same will expire, together with the amount actually paid on said license, and said tax collector shall also in said report inform the Board of any and all persons, firms, corporations or associations of whom he has knowledge, or reason to believe, is conducting any business (for which a license is required under this ordinance), without a license.

Sec. 9. A separate license must be obtained for each separate house or business herein mentioned, located or carried on in said County of Sonoma.

Sec. 10. Every person, corporation or association and every agent or servant of a corporation, who carries on or conducts, or assists in carrying on or conducting, in Sonoma County, without first obtaining a license, any of the businesses mentioned herein, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than twenty-five days, nor for more than three months.

Sec. 12. All license taxes provided for in this ordinance are a debt due to the said County of Sonoma and are due and payable in advance, at the office of the tax collector of said county.
